LaCarma Brown-McMillan Named Principal of St. James-Santee Elementary School

Charleston, SC — Charleston County School District (CCSD) is proud to announce LaCarma Brown-McMillan as Principal of St. James-Santee Elementary School. Brown-McMillan has served as Principal of West Ashley Advanced Studies Magnet (WA-ASM) since 2011.

During her time at West Ashley, the school was awarded over $300,000 in grants, along with numerous state and national student and teacher awards and recognitions. Additionally, Brown-McMillan was instrumental in helping create a mentoring program for students, as well as various student clubs, organizations, and partnerships with local companies.

"We sincerely thank LaCarma for committing to work with the District 1 community for the next two to three years to support the scholars and families in the Awendaw-McClellanville area," said Dr. Joe Williams, CCSD Executive Director of Middle School Learning.

A graduate of Lincoln High School and South Carolina State University, Brown-McMillan earned her Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and Master of Education in School Counseling. She furthered her education by attending The Citadel to earn an Education Administration certification.

Within her 19 years as an educator, she has had a wonderful opportunity to impact the lives of students and families in Columbia, Orangeburg, and Charleston.

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is the second largest school system in South Carolina representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools that span 1,000 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves more than 50,000 students in 86 schools and several specialized programs. With approximately 6,100 employees district-wide, CCSD is the fourth largest employer in the region.

CCSD offers a diverse, expanding portfolio of options and specialized programs, delivered through neighborhood, charter, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), and Montessori schools, and is divided into three Learning Communities led by associate superintendents. Options include specialized programs in science, engineering and mathematics; liberal arts; music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; and military and other public service enterprises.
